The two brothers - Tom and James Papadakis, sons of a carpenter, were born in Kastelli Gravias, Greece. Both immigrated to New York in the early 1900's, eventually making their way to Houston. With just $75 in his pocket and a third grade education, Tom convinced his brother James to build their version of the American Dream ... and thus it began.

August, 1983 we started Kelley's Country Cookin. Today, the entire Kelley family takes pride in ownership and we now have seven locations, employ over 600 and have a combined seating capacity of approximately 1600. We could not have achieved this level of success without our loyal customers who continue to patronize us and make Kelley's a regular part of their lives.
