

Message from the Chief

Reporting crimes and suspicious behavior is important because:

It allows law officers to identify patterns and trends quicker; leading to the Apprehension of criminals and fewer victims.

It allows for a more accurate picture of criminal activity in the city.

It shows criminals that crime is not tolerated and is taken seriously.

Being Pro-Active and calling about those behaviors that seem out of the ordinary or ongoing activity that often accompanies crimes helps the police identify potential patterns or interdict crimes before they occur.

Sincerely,

Gary Stewart
Chief of Police

Write It Down!

As soon as possible write everything down you can remember. Don't try to rely on your memory. It is very easy to get things mixed up especially if you are the victim.

Remember the most important information is:

- What Happened?
- When?
- Is Anyone Injured?
- License Plate Number?
- Direction of Travel?
- Description of Vehicle(s)?
- Description of Person(s) Involved?

What is Suspicious Activity?

There are a great many people, things and situations which you may consider to be “suspicious”.

Any situation or occurrence which may seem “Out of Place” or “Unusual”, being conducted in your neighborhood (any hour of the day or night) can be suspicious activity.

Trust your Natural intuition. If something you see makes you feel uncomfortable or you believe it to be wrong...it probably is!!

If You See It! Report It!

Your role as a good neighbor is to report all suspicious activities occurring in your community.

No one knows your Neighborhood better than you.

Your call might be the information needed to assist in solving a crime.
